

1. The Seacoast Area Mobile Market was launched in Dover after receiving $260,000 in grants from the Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Foundation and the Thomas W. Haas Fund of the New Hampshire Charitable Foundation to help provide access to local foods in communities within its service region.

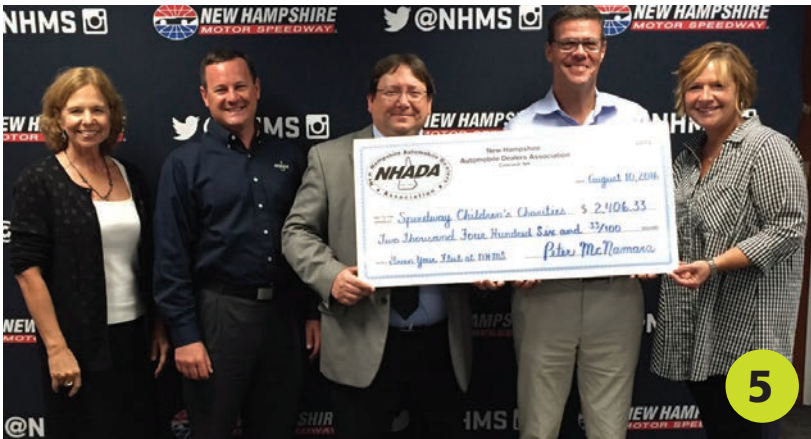

2. Merrimack Valley Credit Union awarded $1,500 in college scholarships to three local high school graduates. Pictured here: Peter Matthews, CEO of Merrimack Valley Credit Union, with (left to right) Emily Freeman, Ryan Hamilton and Michaila Sheehan.

3. Members First Credit Union employees donated $875 from their Casual Friday Fund to Big Brothers Big Sisters of New Hampshire. Pictured here: members of the 200 Union Street, Manchester branch team - Mitchell, James, Katie, Ron and Matt.

4. Girls Inc. of New Hampshire received a $25,000 grant from the UPS Foundation to be used toward Girls Inc.'s Capital Campaign for the renovation of their library. Pictured, from left: Nashua package driver Ed McQuoid, Sales Training Manager Nicole Jambard, Girls Inc. CEO Cathy Duffy Cullity and Nashua package supervisor Jason Lambert.

5. New Hampshire Motor Speedway and Speedway Children's Charities were presented with a $2,400 donation from New Hampshire Auto Dealers Association. Pictured, from left: Dolores Rebolledo, NHDES Granite State Clean Cities Coalition; Dan Bennett, NHADA; Craig Wright, NHDES - director of NHDES Air Resources Division; David McGrath, NHMS & SCC; and Cheryl LaPrade, NH SCC.

6. The Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce announced the winners of the 2016 Funds for Education Golf Tournament, which raises money for the Chamber's Business Grants for Teachers and the Capital Area Student Leadership program. Pictured, from left: winners Ryan Desmarais, Brian Lavoie, Matthew James and Daniel Gray.

7. Michelle O'Malley, March of Dimes Executive Division Director (left) and Event Chair Jill Teeters (right) present Michael L'Ecuyer, CEO of Bellwether Community Credit Union, with his Honorary Chair Plaque. Michael L'Ecuyer will join Jill Teeters in leading the Signature Chefs Auction in October.

8. Sean Skabo, assistant vice president and business lender for Merrimack County Savings Bank, was honored with Intown Concord's President's Choice Award for going above and beyond in support of the organization's mission.

9. Sandra Poleatewich, RN, chief operating officer at Interim Healthcare in Manchester was awarded the Home Care Service Award by the Home Care Association of New Hampshire in recognition of her outstanding work promoting quality health care services both at the state and federal level. Picture, from left: Sandra Poleatewich, Home Care Association CEO Gina Blakus, and Karen Michel, executive director at Rockingham County.

10. Members of the Lake Sunapee Bank and Hanover Improvement Society teams gather to present a donation for the improvements of Storrs Pond's new bathhouse. Pictured, from left: Jeff Graham, general manager, Hanover Improvement Society; Dean Cashman, vice president commercial loan officer, Lake Sunapee Bank; Dick Dodds, facilities manager, Storrs Pond; and Randy Mudge, board president, Hanover Improvement Society.